Corporate Membership is for firms who work with or provide services to architects and their firms.

Membership offers a unique opportunity for companies to tap into New York City's rich design community in support of design excellence, professional and business development, and public outreach. Corporate memberships are purchased by companies, which then confer member benefits on a specified number of staff.

Chapter Corporate Members:

- Take part in architectural event programming
- Are included in our Professional Services Directory
- Network with leading New York architects
- Name executives and other key personnel as active Chapter members
- Receive discounts on event admissions, advertising, and space rental
- Are recognized as forward-looking supporters of design excellence

Corporate members join architects, related firms, and design enthusiasts to encourage collaboration in the industry. Their annual contributions support many valuable programs at the Center for Architecture. Membership runs on a calendar year with fees pro-rated on a quarterly basis for mid-year enrollments.

Have questions? Contact our membership team at 212-358-6115 or membership@aiany.org.

* Members receive all mailings including the quarterly magazine Oculus, our bi-weekly e-newsletter eOculus, invitations to private events, conference information and the AIA New York Chapter Firm Directory. Center for Architecture members are affiliates of the AIA New York Chapter. Registered architects and degreed associates may not hold corporate membership, and must join the AIA as Architect or Associate members.
